INDEX

TO

THE FIFTY-SIXTH VOLUME

OF THE

Westminster Review.

No. CX.—OCTOBER, 1851.

As the Volume and the year of the WESTMINSTER REVIEW have not hitherto corresponded, or closed together—that is to say, as the October Number of one year, and the January Number of the next, have been bound together as a volume —it is thought desirable to remedy the inconvenience at the cost of making one volume in the Series of half the usual size, in order that the January Number for 1852 may form the first Number of Volume LVII. This Index has accordingly been prepared for the purpose of making No. CX. a complete volume in itself.
